OUR STORY

In our childhood,
while playing with my sister in the shade of olive trees, we never knew that one day
we would bring that magnificent olive oil
from these olives to Scandinavian lands.

We grew up and today we bring this health resource together with the people there. We continue our journey by sharing this dream that is now realized with the people of our own land by multiplying one more person. Dardanos Fine Foods extra virgin olive oil is carefully produced from hand-picked, cold pressed, high quality early harvest olives. It is completely natural. Just like our grandfather taught us. You can consume it with peace of mind and pleasure.

POMEGRANATE
MOLASSES AT ITS BEST ●

I have great memories of when my Grandma picked pomegranates in her garden and gently squeezed the pomegranate juice out of the fruit. Later, it was boiled gently down to a thick, sour-sweet syrup.

We have made a delicious product without sugar or other additives, just like my grandmother taught me, the tradition continues.

A good dressing for fish and shellfish.
